

HIGHLAND HERALD

A Publication of the Highlands Community Club and ELS
July-August 2008

HI FROM THE NORTHWEST

Your editors and summer arrived in the Pacific Northwest only a day apart—but we got there first! Now we are in Alaska and summer has turned liquid. We hope it dries out before our stay is over.

We saw a lot of trucks, less cars than usual and only a few RVs on the road this summer. Gas prices really have made a difference in our summer driving habits!

We've chosen to make this a double issue, for July and August. Thanks to Marlene Edwards, #134 who has been available to receive your submissions and email them to us. And thanks to those of you who have contacted her or us with information for the newsletter. That's the only way it will work!

As always you will be able to receive your newsletter on your clip or by mail if you have requested that service at the office. But do remember that the Herald is online for quicker access at www.hugshelen.com/herald.html.

FROM THE MANAGER

I have just a couple of reminders:

Friendly Reminder to all of our Pet Residents: Please make sure that when you are out on a walk with your owner, they keep you on a short leash, clean up after you and never allow you to wonder onto another residents property, unless invited to do so.

ALL RENTAL RESIDENTS: WHEN SOMETHING GOES WRONG IN YOUR HOME, YOU MUST CALL THE OFFICE (480-832-6260) TO REPORT THE PROBLEM ANYTIME OF DAY/NIGHT. IF IT IS AN EMERGENCY AFTER BUSINESS HOURS, WE WILL BE NOTIFIED AND RESPOND ACCORDINGLY. PLEASE DO NOT CALL ANY OUTSIDE REPAIR VENDORS FOR SERVICE - WE WILL NOT BE ABLE TO GUARANTEE THEIR WORK, NOR WILL WE PAY FOR THEIR SERVICES IF THEY ARE NOT APPROVED AND CALLED BY OUR OFFICE.

Thank you, Suzanna Spann-Hernandez, Manager

NOTARY

Did you know that we have a Notary in the Office? Elizabeth will be glad to notarize any legal papers you bring to the office. This is a free, complimentary service that she offers Highlands residents.

Idle thoughts for long summer days:

I planted some birdseed and birds came up. What do I feed them?

All I ask is a chance to prove that money doesn't make me happy.

Is it my imagination, or do buffalo wings taste like chicken?

MEET OUR NEW SALES MANAGER

Hello Highlanders! I'd like to introduce myself and invite you to come by the office and say hi. I have over 20 years of real estate background in leasing, relocation, rehabbing, and appraising. I also worked for an elite, privately-owned hunting and fishing club back in Illinois, so I know some great recipes for goose, duck, upland game, and fish.

I come from a large Irish-Polish Catholic family of 10, and I'm the second youngest, so I'm the scrapper. I love to read anything interesting, do crossword puzzles, and am an avid movie buff. I played an extra in ER back when George Clooney was the star. I also enjoy organizing fund raising events, so feel free to tap into my experience if you need it.

One last thing—I came here from Chicago. My father lived there when Capone ruled the streets and the gangsters wore suits with ties. I'd hang onto every word of each story he'd tell. I still love to hear stories of long ago and I hope you'll share yours with me.

I believe that with both myself and Suzanna at the Highlands, residents will feel the benefit of our combined experiences and effort to make the Highlands THE community in which to live. So, come in and say hello.

Jill Orlove, Sales Manager

Experience is the thing you have left when everything else is gone.

I used to be indecisive. Now I'm not sure.
